

One of Queensland's unique journeys and experiences

4 day 1770 beach escape

Leave it all behind with a journey on the high speed Tilt Train. Enjoy staying in one of the most beautiful places along the Queensland coast, with accommodation nestled alongside a north facing beach and protected by a natural headland. Spend a day at the beach like never before, with an amphibious adventure across waterways and down endless stretches of sand.

Inclusions:

- Return economy travel on the Tilt Train from Brisbane to Miriam Vale
- 3 nights accommodation Sandcastles 1770 Motel & Resort
- Full day LARC Paradise Tour
- Return transfers from Miriam Vale train station
- 3 breakfasts, 1 morning tea, 1 lunch.

Day 1 Tuesday Depart Brisbane for Miriam Vale. Arrive and transfer to your tranquil accommodation in Agnes Water. Overnight Sandcastles 1770 Motel & Resort.

Day 2 Wednesday From the Town of 1770, the LARC—a pink amphibious vehicle—will take you across crystal clear waterways and along endless stretches of sandy beaches. Discover the historic Bustard Head Light Station, and enjoy spectacular panoramic views east of the Town of 1770 and west of Pancake Creek. Soak up the idyllic beauty of deserted Jenny Lind Creek and for the adventurous traveller go sand boarding down the towering sand dunes on Middle Island. Overnight Sandcastles 1770 Motel & Resort. (CB, MT, L)

Day 3 Thursday Today is at your own leisure to discover the local towns or simply relax at the resort. Overnight Sandcastles 1770 Motel & Resort. (CB)

Day 4 Friday Enjoy breakfast before checking out and boarding the Tilt Train for your homeward journey. (CB)
