

Outback Trailblazer 2012

ANZAC Day. Troop Train. Jazz Music.
Trailblazer Challenge.

See the outback with us

The outback always has plenty to offer, from 21–30 April 2012 the west will be buzzing with exciting events. Queensland Rail Travel can take you there, from jazz music to the military celebrations, and trailblazing challenges to keep Angel Flight flying.

Queensland Rail has a long and proud association with the outback, providing essential transport and freight for far flung communities, employment for generations of rail families out west, and in more recent times, opening up the outback to thousands of Australian and international visitors.

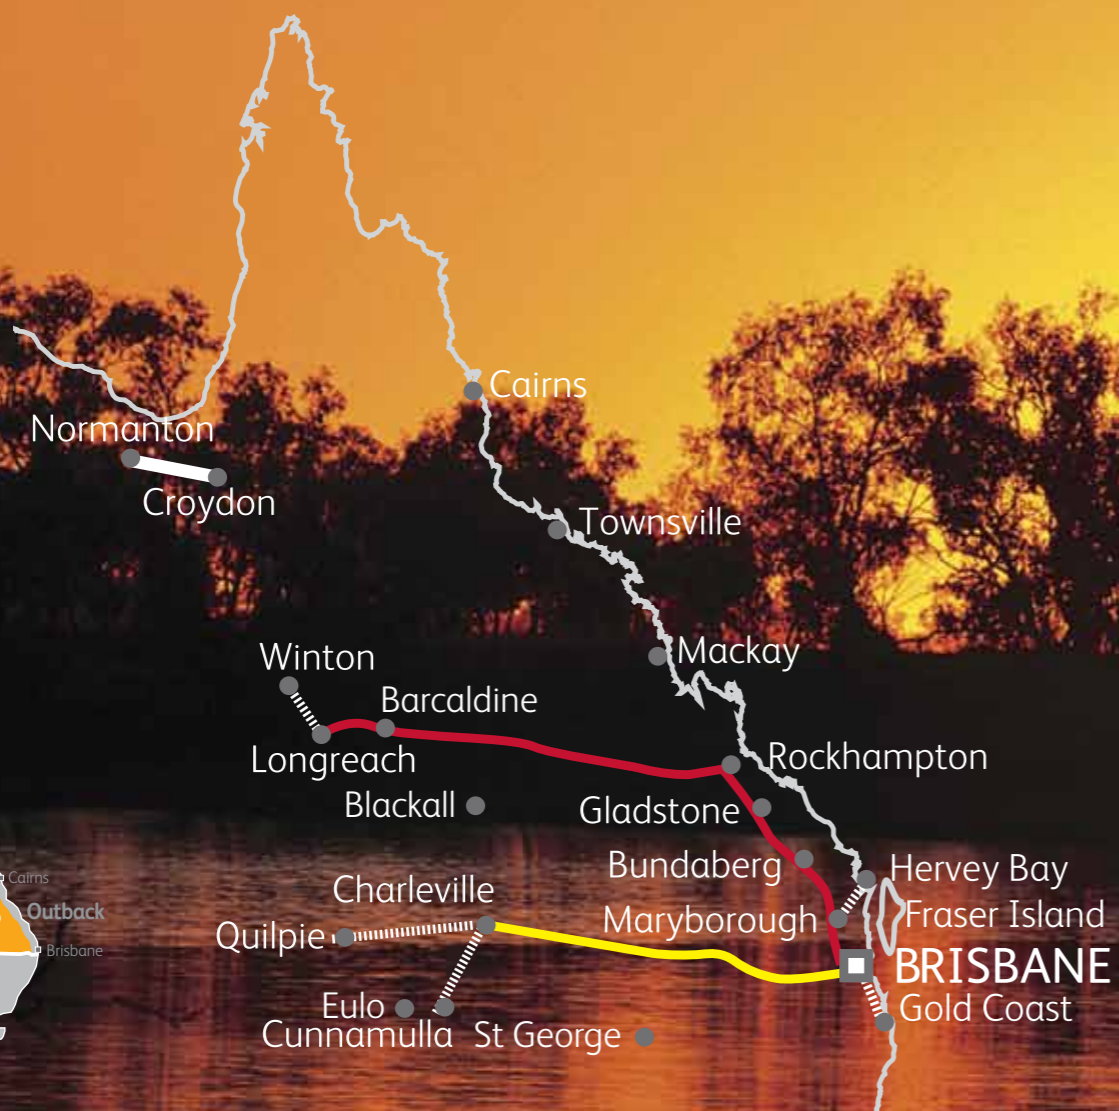

Queensland Rail Travel is part of the outback landscape and is honoured to be supporting rural and regional events. Queensland Rail Travel is offering four holiday packages to choose from, each one different, yet all offer unique outback experiences.
